Connie began painting at Jilamara Arts in 2010.

She is known for painting the Tiwi creation story of Purukapali, Bima (Wai-ai) & Japara. Connie also paints imagery depicting bush tucker both flora and fauna, found on the Tiwi Islands.

She is a strong Tiwi woman, who passes on important Tiwi cultural knowledge to her five children and grand children.

Nuwumirriyaga is Male Spear
Arringuwuri is Female Spear
"I did this painting for ACTIVE. The Female and Male spears represent both male and female around the world working together as one. Dose not matter what colour or nationality, we all in one whole wide world".
